

Support the Foundation of the American Institute for Conservation of Historic & Artistic Works (FAIC)

The Foundation of the American Institute for Conservation of Historic and Artistic Works (FAIC), founded in 1973 as a 501(c)(3) organization, seeks to advance the practice of conservation and to disseminate technical and professional information through education and outreach. Programs, such as continuing education initiatives, are carried out by the American Institute for Conservation of Historic and Artistic Works (AIC), the national membership organization of conservation professionals.

FAIC welcomes your contributions to its mission of preservation and education. Your gift assists in promoting training, research, and advocacy for the preservation of cultural heritage worldwide. Future generations benefit from your generosity. Support FAIC today by giving in one or more of the categories below:

FAIC General Fund. Supports Professional Development Scholarships, Workshop Development Grants, Lectures Grants, Regional Angels Projects, advocacy, public education, and outreach. $ _____

FAIC Endowment for Professional Development. Earnings from this endowment support professional development programs for conservators throughout the country. $ _____

George Stout Memorial Fund. Supports conservation students seeking to attend professional meetings. $ _____

Carolyn Horton Fund. Supports continuing education or training for book and paper conservators. $ _____

Christa Gaehde Fund. Promotes study and research in the conservation of fine art prints and drawings. $ _____

“Take a Chance” Fund. Established in honor of Carolyn Rose. Supports innovative thinking in projects and research that might not be funded through other sources. $ _____

Tax deductible contributions should be made payable to FAIC, a 501(c)(3) organization, at 1156 15th Street, NW, Suite 320, Washington, DC 20005-1714.
